About Daniel

Daniel, a native Puerto Rican, is an Associate Marriage & Family Therapist who graduated from John F. Kennedy University with a Masters in Counseling Psychology with a concentration in Integral Psychotherapy (2015). He also possesses a Bachelors in Psychology from the University of Puerto Rico in San Juan (2003) and a Masters in East-West Psychology from the California Institute of Integral Studies (2006). Daniel has been working with multicultural populations for over 10 years.

He is currently working in a nonprofit organization in San Francisco as a mental health specialist providing consultation to pre-schools and SFUSD systems. Daniel is deeply committed to foster a sense of interconnectivity and social advocacy around mental health values in the Bay Area.
